

The Role of Strategic Partnerships in Maintaining Cyber Security through Cooperation

Olguța DOGARU

“Alexandru Ioan Cuza” Police Academy, Bucharest, Romania
olgutadogaru@yahoo.com

Abstract

By approaching the concept of security taking into consideration the current reality and a future that does not allow us to postpone the elaboration of a topical strategy before such threats, the challenged launched by the states is perfectly justified if we take into account that: „The security of the future cannot be won only by using weapons, but also by acquiring deep understanding between all nations of the world”.

Index terms: decision mechanisms, multinational exercise, principle of solidarity, topical strategy, security of the future

References:

- [1]. F. Coldea, “Counter Espionage in the XXIst Century”, article in the book A mind war, published by RAO, 2010, pp. 185.
- [2]. The Huffington Post (2015, Apr. 22) [Online] Available: www.huffingtonpost.com/~patriot-act-extension
- [3]. Good practices Guide to consolidate cooperation between CERT and law enforcement authorities fighting against cyber-crime, [Online] Available: www.cert-ro.eu.
- [4]. C. Troncotă and collaborators, Insecurity Anxieties, published by Tritonic, Bucharest, 2005, pp. 19.
- [5]. H.G. 271/2013 approval Romanian Cyber Security Strategy.
- [6]. J. Canton, Challenges of the Future, published by Polirom, Bucharest, 2010, p. 245.
- [7]. NATO (2015, Apr. 15) [Online] Available: www.nato.int